There is one notice of public hearing date - Nov 29, 2022 - posted at the end of Winter Falls Lane and I commented on it for the July 2022 planning commission meeting and will comment again. I am opposed to land use designations for parcel number 173533001000 - on Winter Falls Lane - changing from Forest Reserve to Rural Farm Forest.

Was surprised to see my own parcel in the agenda for the July 2022 meeting up for possible re designation as well - with no public notice at the end of my road and no idea who made the recommendation - and no one talking with me about it.
